SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1922.

BAY ST. LOUIS MAN IS DIRECTOR IN MINING COMPANY.

Merrill Silver Lead Company, of Goldfield, Nevada, has Material, Prospects and Tangible Outlook—A Number of Bay St. Louisians Have Interest—Likely They Will Strike It Rich.

The Merrill Silver Lead Company, of Goldfield, Nevada, will begin operations in the immediate future. This is a company with material prospects and a tangible outlook, as the experts put it.

Bay St. Louis is intensely interested in the ultimate success of the development of this mine, rich in deposits of lead and silver. There are quite a number of stockholders residing here who have pinned their faith to the company. Mr. Owen Crawford, representative and reputable citizen of Bay St. Louis, is a member of the board of executives. A year or two since Mr. Crawford took a trip to the scene of the location of the mine. He made a careful and exhaustive examination and returned imbued with the vast possibilities of the proposition.

From the Daily Tribune, Goldfield, Nevada, dated August 29th, of the present year, we find the following article which will be read with interest by many of our Bay St. Louis readers as follows:

Telegraphic instructions have been received by G. M. Bettles, representative of the Merrill Silver Lead Company, from A. H. Merrill, president, to at once commence operation on the company's property in the Copper Flat district. Mr. Merrill's message is from Bay St. Louis, Miss., and he says in part: "Support received here insures complete financing of the company. Commencing operations at once along the lines specified by Mr. Turner."

Mr. Merrill has visited various sections of the south and the middle west during the past four months and has everywhere received support and cooperation in his efforts to finance the Merrill company. The advices received indicate the securing of ample funds to fully develop the property, and, according to Mr. Bettles, work can now be carried through to the point of a thorough proving of the ground. Mr. Merrill's efforts have met with success on all sides and he has not been satisfied with half measures, but has continued working until the securing of adequate funds is now assured. The company has had no dealings through promotion brokers and the funds so far raised are net to the company, thus assuring the investors the utmost in return for their money.

Arrangements for operations are now being made and it is expected that the first round in a new cross-cut on the 50-foot level will be fired September 1. The shaft through which the work will be done is vertical and starts at surface on the hanging wall side of the vein. As the vein dips at a moderate angle, the shaft passes through it at the 50-foot point, and the first work done will consist of a cross-cut back to the hanging wall side to develop a shoot of ore opened nearer surface. The ore is a silver-lead product and occurs as high-grade lead sulphides and carbonates carrying very favorable silver values. It is an admirable shipping product and its tendency to high-grade values, coupled with the strength of the vein in which it occurs, promise early and favorable results from the work to be done. After sufficient work at the present level is done, the work will be moved upward, with every reason to expect still higher quotations over a long period, and silver prices will remain at $1 per ounce for a long time to come. The property is highly recommended and a vigorous campaign of development seems assured. Developments have already disclosed some 100,000 tons and Mr. Merrill feels confident that his company is developing a mine which will within a reasonable length of time be a steady and perhaps prolific producer.

MAUFFRAY AGAIN HEADS CAL KNIGHTS COLUMBUS.

Annual Meeting Held Sunday Night Selected Jas. O. Mauffray Grand Knight, Wm. H. Starr Deputy Grand Knight—Out of Town Guests Present and Speak.

Pere Leduc Council, Knights of Columbus, of Bay St. Louis, met at the new K. C. Hall on the beach front Sunday night. It was the occasion of the annual election of officers, and a large attendance was present. The membership of the local K. C. organization is well nigh two hundred members.

Joseph O. Mauffray, who formerly headed the Pere Leduc Council, was prevailed upon to accept the leadership again and was elected grand knight, the mantle of this high and exalted office falling on his shoulders. COLLEGE TEAM PLAY SPLENDID GAME BALL.

Defeated Chero-Cola Nine from New Orleans in Exciting and Well Played Game—Will Play Chiloma Giants Tomorrow.

The college baseball team treated the Bay fans to a splendid game of ball last Sunday. With practically all of last year's great team intact they started the fall season with an exciting and well played game with the Chero-Cola of New Orleans. The lack of practice slowed a little in the hitting and fielding, but the boys did well in the fielding and the Chero-Cola of New Orleans did well in the hitting and fielding.

The game was a close one, with the Chero-Cola of New Orleans leading 3-2 at the end of the first five innings. The college team then came from behind to win the game 5-3.

Following the party pastimes, refreshments were served and the afternoon all too quickly faded into the evening. The college team showed up well with a phenomenal catch of a Texas League ball that looked like a safe single. The Gossen Brothers took turns in center field and showed speed that will be valuable later on.

A few more good games are carded before the football season rolls in. The game tomorrow with the Killona Giants from St. Charles parish, Louisiana, promises to be worth while. This team is piloted by Steve Burch, old Stanislaus catcher of twenty years ago. A crowd of rooters is coming with the team to see what their home town heroes look like against a real ball team. Come along—the more the merrier.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR ON FERRY LAST EVENING.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Drackett and Mr. and Mrs. Rembert M. Rea entertained jointly last evening a large number of their friends on board the steamer "Cecil N. Bean," especially reserved for the occasion.

With a band of music on board, the steamer pulled out at 9 o'clock, with over a hundred guests on board, and steamed out into the bay and over to the mouth of the Wolf river. The evening was ideal for such a trip.

With a pleasant breeze blowing, the guests danced until the midnight hour. For the occasion the dance deck was decorated with palm trees, with great festoons of oleanders and Spanish moss and Japanese lanterns concealed the many electric light bulbs. The scene was unusually attractive and the evening of pleasure afforded the guests it might well be said unusually delightful.

A partial list of the guests follows: Mr. and Mrs. George H. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Webb, Dr. Mrs. J. A. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rea, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fournier, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Firsching, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Genin, Mr. and Mrs. V. Dell, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Smith, Mr. C. A. Breath and Miss Rita Breath, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. There's nothing longer than the summer days to the girl who is engaged to be married in the fall.

Lots of times a woman calls a man a woman-hater simply because he refuses to admire her.

We've also noticed that the man who makes hay while the sun shines seldom has a sun stroke.

Another thing we can't figure out is why a woman is always younger than a man born on the same day.

People go on picnics to forget everything. And this usually includes salt and pepper for the eggs.

It's a good thing that "Tin Lizzie" can keep a secret better than most women.

THE "WAKE-UP" MAN.

In New York, and we suppose in many other large cities, they have what they call a "wake-up man." His sole job is to see that night watchmen in stores and factories do not fall asleep at their posts, are not bound by robbers while the place they are guarding is being ransacked, and in other ways prove himself a good little assistant to men who are paid for guarding business houses.

We need a lot of "wake-up men" in every walk of life and in every section of the country. We could use one quite often right here in Bay St. Louis. There is a business man, for example, who is sitting back in his chair. Trade is fairly good, and each week is no worse than the one that went before. He manages to make a living. He doesn't see the advantages or the benefit in advertising. He is content to let patronage come if it wants to—or stay away. That sort of a business man deserves to have a "wake-up man" come around and stir him out of his sleep.

Then, there is the man who is always dreaming about getting rich without working. There are a lot of people in this class and they have a lot of ideas that they figure ought to bring them in a fortune. But they need a "wake-up man" to kick them in the ribs and tell them to get to work and quit dreaming. Life is full of men and women who need to be jerked around a little to keep them awake and moving—to keep them out of the way of people who want to go ahead and do things. They have genius and ability, but they never get their eyes open to the best chances which the world of business opens to them.

Farmers in Biloxi an vicinity have begun breaking ground for the planting of strawberries in early fall from which they expect a crop sufficiently large to allow shipment to Eastern markets. When planting is begun George Strate, experienced grower of strawberries, will make weekly inspections and instruct the farmers how to raise successful crops.

AIRPLANE DUSTING USED IN CONTROL OF COTTON WORM.

Airplane dusting as a means of control for cotton leaf worms is being given a thorough test by the United States Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the war department, which is loaning planes and pilots for experimentation. The work is going on at the Delta laboratory of the Bureau of Entomology, at Tallulah, La., under the direction of B. R. Coad.

The necessity for reaching every part of a large area as rapidly as possible in case of a severe infestation led to these experiments, which have so far given very encouraging results. The width of spread taken at a trip by the plane is yet to be determined, but it is known that the dust delivery from a plane can be controlled to poison effectively a strip of any desired width from 20 to 400 feet. About two pounds of calcium arsenate to the acre insures a very thorough dusting.

A hopper without any feed mechanism whatever has been developed, using the air current created by the plane to deliver the dust and break it up into very fine particles. The speed and thoroughness with which this is accomplished, the amount of adhesion to the plants and the economy of operation, have been advantages obtained by the use of the airplane. Even with a small hopper necessitating frequent landings, about 250 acres of cotton can be treated in an hour, although there may be a stiff breeze blowing. The cost of operation appears to be much lower than the cost for mules and labor for operating the number of dusting machines which the plane replaces. In addition there is enormous saving in chemicals, as the calcium arsenate dust is distributed so much more effectively.

SOMETHING'S WRONG.

When we reflect that Judge Landis is getting a salary of $50,000 a year as the head of national baseball leagues, and Will Hays is drawing down $100,000 as chief executive of the moving picture interests of this country, we turn to school teachers who are drawing down a measly $1,200 a year and college professors getting $2,400—and we know something is wrong.

Take the average school teacher around Bay St. Louis and if he or she receives a salary of more than $25.00 a week they can count themselves lucky. And when a preacher of one of our churches receives as much as $2,000 a year he is said to be head of a "wealthy charge." We are not begrudging either Judge Landis or Mr. Hays their good fortune. If we could swap jobs with either of them we'd do it before morning. But we are deplored a state of affairs which makes such salaries possible and so out of proportion with those paid men and women who are doing a million times more beneficial work. What Judge Landis is doing isn't going to be right for the youth of tomorrow. What Will Hays is doing isn't fixing it so one single man or woman in America can earn more or enjoy more comforts. But the teacher who fits our boys and girls for a place in the world, and the minister who labors to fix us place in a better world are forced to exist on next to nothing while fabulous salaries go where they do the least good.

The salary system of this country is going to prove a mighty serious proposition in this country some of these days if we don't look to it a little closer. And the consequences are going to be terrible to contemplate.

FORD'S NEWEST STUNT.

Bay St. Louis people will watch with interest the newest move of Henry Ford in the industrial world. He declares his plant at Detroit will close down September 16th, throwing 80,000 men out of work in that city. Hundreds of concerns in other cities make parts for Ford cars—everything from lamps to tires. Those, of course, also would have to reduce forces or shut down entirely. So altogether the closing of Ford's plants would mean close to 2,000,000 people thrown out of work. Ford declares coal, steel and railroad officials are robbing the taxpayers of the world of business houses.

CITY ECHOES.

Mr. M. L. Arceneaux, prominent resident and business man of Morgan City, La., has returned to his home, after a visit to his brother, Mr. Ed. J. Arceneaux, and family.

Miss Amelia Lucas, accomplished daughter of our townspeople, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lucas, has resumed her studies at the Dominican College, at New Orleans.

Capt. John Drackett, of the Drackett Line, came over from Morgan City, La., during the week for a short visit to his son, Mr. Frank W. Drackett, and family.

Mrs. C. S. McMillin is planning an early departure for Tennessee to visit relatives for a few months, and where her son and daughter have been since the early part of the summer.

Mr. W. E. Wells, connected with the local offices of the Louisville and Nashville Company, left yesterday morning on his vacation and will visit relatives and friends in Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio and Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Lichtenstein passed through Bay St. Louis last night on their way to New York City, where they will spend part of the fall season, visiting relatives, shopping and combining business with pleasure, as is their annual custom.

Mr. John D. Grace, Mrs. Grace and their daughter, Miss Grace, left yesterday for New York City, where Attorney Grace has business in admiralty. During their absence they will visit several other points East.

There will be a tennis tournament tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock between the Tennis Club of the Bay-Waveland Club and the Bi-loxi Tennis Club, on the Geary court, corner St. Charles and Front streets. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Spiess, their charming young daughter, Mary Margaret, and son, Albert, closed their attractive Waveland villa today, and have returned to New Orleans for the winter season, where Mr. Spiess is prominent in the wholesale district and Mrs. Spiess prominently known in social circles.

Mr. Grady Perkins will leave tomorrow for A. and M. College to resume his studies, specializing in electrical engineering. He is a most estimable and popular young man and will be greatly missed in home circles. This will be his third term of a four-year course.

Elmer Hymel, who has had a most successful season with the league ball players, has returned from Atlanta, Ga., and is spending a while at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hymel, in Union street.

Mayor R. W. Webb was an official visitor to New Orleans Friday in the interest of the water works system which the city is about to rebuild. The mayor expresses much satisfaction over the progress of the success the city is making with the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile J. Dubuque came out from New Orleans for the day Sunday and spent the day with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. de Montuzin. Mrs. Dubuque and little daughters returned a few days since from a three-months' stay in California.

Among the families enjoying the early fall season in Bay St. Louis are Mr. and Mrs. Julian Swoop and family, whose friends are delighted to have them prolong their stay. Miss Margery Swoop is one of the most popular members of the younger set, both in New Orleans and Bay St. Louis.

Messrs. Edward Bros., local Ford representatives, have on exhibition in their stores, departing from a Lincoln touring car, one of the very latest makes of Ford cars. Henry Ford now owns the Lincoln company. The car is the very last word in motor construction, and visitors admire and marvel. It is worthy of a visit and inspection.

Mr. A. F. Fournier, chairman of the committee of ladies, under whose auspices the minstrel entertainment was recently given for the benefit of the soldier patients at Gulfport, mailed a check this week for $192.00 as a result of the benefit. Such net receipts from an entertainment reaches the high water mark and sets a new pace.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dardan and interesting children are here from New Orleans for the September month. They are occupying the dwelling occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Osoinach, who have gone to New Orleans, where they will reside in future. The Dardens have quite a circle of friends in Bay St. Louis who will welcome their visit.

Purchasing the J. Magne home, on Front near Julia street, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fucich and family, who among the many delightful summer residents of the season, will not return to New Orleans, but in future will make Bay St. Louis their permanent home. This charming family, who made so many friends during the summer, will find a warm welcome awaiting them as permanent residents. They will take possession before the 1st. Mr. Magne will spend a while in New Orleans before joining his wife in Europe.

Mr. Peter X. Monteleone, who has been one of the chief assistants of Superintendent of Bridges Owen Crawford, of the Louisville and Nashville Company, for the past several years, has resigned his position and left, Tuesday, for New Orleans, where he has taken a position with a wholesale fruit and produce house in the bookkeeping department. He is a splendid young man and success awaits him.

Members of the local Howitzer Company will give their first official target practice and drill tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the beach in front of the LaPeyre property, and the public is invited to be present. The local military men are enthusiastic over the event, and the public will be interested as well. Bay St. Louis is justly proud of its military organization, and the note of its success will be received with satisfaction.

Rev. G. S. Harmon, of Poplarville, met with unusual success in the conduct of the revival which he held at the Main Street Methodist church. He is a forcible and able speaker, a man of strong convictions, and the vital came to a close as products of permanent good. Mr. Harmon is the editor of the Free Press at Poplarville, and his editorials during the late senatorial contest in behalf of Mr. Stephenson, the candidate much favored—and voted. He is as splendid a writer as he is a speaker.

Mrs. Pearl Duble Berryman, who came here from Berwyn, a suburb of Chicago, Ill., on the sad mission of attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. May Cameron Matthiessen, left her, a few days since for Tampico, Mexico, to settle the affairs of her sister, Mrs. Matthiessen having died some time past.

Coach Foster Commagere at St. Stanlaus College is preparing for the approaching football season, and has every reason to believe it will be one of the most interesting yet. He has splendid material to develop and already the collegians are beginning to fit themselves. The schedule is already in preparation and includes some of the larger schools. Fuller Bull, The Echo's star reporter of athletes, will detail the game for our readers.

The fall term of Hancock county court adjourned Thursday afternoon, after a busy two-weeks' session. Judge Graham expressed his satisfaction to The Echo of the amount of business expedited at this session of court. A large number of cases were disposed of and other matters expedited with equal success. Owing to the unusual amount of official matter carried in this issue of The Echo the court proceedings will have to appear in our next issue.

The charter of incorporation of the Russ Packet Company appears in the advertising column of The Echo. This company is headed by some of the best known business men of the Pearl River section of this country. The gun will put into operation a large steam ferry plying the waters between Pearl River and the Chef, making the trip between here and the metropolis one direct course and of no inconvenience. Their enterprise and business foresight is to be commended.

The deed for the Mississippi Centennial Exposition property to the United States government was filed at the Harrison county courthouse last Saturday for record. It contained revenue stamps to the amount of $125. The $125,000 to be paid for the property will go to the State of Mississippi, both the city of Gulfport and the county of Harrison having relinquished their interest in the property.

TO OPEN REEFS NEXT MONTH.

The Mississippi Oyster Commission held a meeting in Pass Christian, at which were present all of the members of the commission, who transacted considerable business. It was decided to open the various reefs except the tonging grounds for dredging purposes on October 15. This was decided in favor of the packers who had representatives at the meeting.

It was first announced that the reefs would remain closed until November 1 for dredging of oysters. Aristide Letort of Harrison, H. S. Brumfield for Jackson and William Sick for Hancock county, were appointed as deputy inspectors. An inspection was also made of the reefs, which were found to be in excellent condition, with numerous little oysters growing upon the shells planted during the summer planting season.

Mrs. D. A. H. Letten and interesting little family, of New Orleans, are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jac Bokenfah, on South Front street.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO BORROW $20,000.00.

Whereas it appears the Board advertised for the issuance of a bond warrant of the sum of $20,000.00, and whereas the notice for the issuance of said bond warrant was not published in time required by law.

It is therefore ordered that said order be set aside and rescinded.

Whereas it is ordered by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Bay St. Louis to Hancock county to meet its expenses of the current year, now, therefore, resolved it is in the intention of the Board of Supervisors to borrow $20,000.00 for the Road and Bridge Fund in anticipation of taxes for the year 1922, to defray the expenses of the current year and to issue the negotiable note required of the amount therefor maturing not later than Feb. 1, 1923, and bearing not more than 6 per cent interest per annum.

The Board of Aldermen will publish a certified copy of this order as required by law, so that the adult tax payers of said county may protest if they desire.
